WELCOME TO AESTHETIC HAIR & BEAUTY TRAINING ACADEMY

Aesthetic Hair & Beauty Training Academy is the largest training centre in Sussex, devoted exclusively to beauty therapy, hair and medical education. We offer full and unique educational programmes covering all aspects of beauty therapy, hair and medical treatments at NVQ level 2 - 4 qualification. Our internationally renowned courses are for those who wish to become professionals in the industry.

We provided courses for people of all levels and durations vary from 1 day to 28 weeks. Both full-time and part-week courses are offered, and you can choose a complete beauty therapy /hair/medical course or simply an individual module.

If you visit our training centre you will immediately recognise the difference between ourselves and other centres, colleges of further education establishments. We operate in a professional, specialised environment where all students are welcome and are given our full attention both as a group and individually. Many of our courses are short in length and more intensive, ensuring there is no time wasted and busy schedules are not compromised. You can qualify to a high standard and be out in the industry earning money earlier than those who choose the public sector route. With all our courses, we provide further advice on how to obtain the insurance certificates required to put your learning into practice within in the industry.

Really enjoyed this course. They were really clear, thorough and I would definitely recommend to others!

Sharon Tiley

I was nervous when I started my course but felt at home within half an hour of starting. I recommended AHBT to my friends.

Sasha Goodchild

A good place to do your course. I have recommended to friends!

Amanda Hanover

AHBT offers an experience to meet and exceed the expectations of anyone in their efforts to improve health and cosmetic problems, regardless of inability or medical condition.

DR ZAFAR JAVED

Dr. Zafar Javed has been actively consulting in aesthetics and therapeutics field for over a decade making him a reliable and a satisfactory Physician. Much credit is due to his language abilities as he is fluent in Urdu, Punjabi, Hindi, English and Pushto.

He earned his Bachelor's of Science in 1977 from University of Punjab, Lahore, Pakistan which followed by MBBS in 1982 from the same university. Previously he has been awarded Silver Medal scholarship and Lawrence Trust scholarship due to outstanding examination results at secondary school level.

After the completion of Bachelor of Medicine and Surgery he went on and expanded his knowledge by the addition of a Diploma in Public Health from Post Graduate Medical College/Institute in 1991. In between the years of 1982-1991 he has worked in many different vocational settings where majority were hospital rotations, boosting his skills in every field of medicine. He has extensively worked and taught in various clinics, universities and hospitals across Pakistan and finally in 2001 he further added another Diploma to his existing expertise by achieving DHM (Diploma Homeopathy Medicines) from Galien University, London, UK.

His fine grasp of comprehensive experience over all aspects of medical profession came from working as a Rural General Practitioner in Pakistan and frequent locums all over United Kingdom (Glasgow, Dumfries, Edinburgh, Kent, and Basildon) as well as research in "Iron and Folic acid intake by Asian women". To further broaden his skills he has volunteered at Glasgow Mental Health Unit, Emergency life support in relief camps in Pakistan and in remote areas of Africa which were organised by PCT Scotland.

His continuous efforts towards medical field are very vast which have allowed him to perform at his best in difficult and demanding situations, along with working in diversified cultures and countries as both registrar and supervisory level.
